You Can Buy Investment Stamps at

Many Places in Louisville.

ACCUMULATING by using the investment stamp plan is liked by many people. Possibly you do not know that the Louisville Gas and Electric Company Investment Stamps can be purchased at many stores and shops in Louisville in addition to our office.

THIS STAMP PLAN provides a very simple and convenient method for laying by a few dollars a month. The stamps may be cashed for their full value at any time or converted into the company's securities. They earn interest for the purchaser from the time he buys each stamp.

CATHOLIC ORPHAN SOCIETY.
Tomorrow the parish branches of the Catholic Orphan Society will hold their annual election, when Trustees and officers for the coming year will be chosen. On the first Sunday in January the Board of Trustees will meet and elect officers for the General Society, who shall assume their duties at once.

WOMEN PLAY SANTA.
Disabled soldiers at four hospitals will be presented with Christmas packages by the Jefferson County War Mothers. Mrs. W. D. Huffman, President of the War Mothers, is in charge of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Albert Stein, General Chairman and Chairman of the Marine Hospital Committee; Mrs. H. J. Arnold, Chairman for Hazelwood Sanatorium, and Mrs. D. W. Dyer, Chairman for Waverly Hills Sanatorium. Gifts of cake, candy and nuts will be taken to the soldiers in the two sanatoriums December 27, and at the Marine Hospital, December 29. Those at Deaconess Hospital will also get presents and Christmas cheer.

LEAVE FOR CHINA.
Last Sunday evening five American Passionists left St. Michael Monastery, West Hoboken, to take up work in the mission fields of China. They are Rev. Fathers Celestine Roddan, of Randolph, Mass., Superior of the band; Amato Parill, of West Hoboken, N. J.; Flavien Achena, of Philadelphia; Raphael Vance, of Philadelphia; and Timothy McDermott, of Pittsburgh. Impressive ceremonies in connection with the departure of the mission band were held at the West Hoboken Monastery. Right Rev. Bishop O'Connor, of Newark, presided at the ceremony as celebrant of solemn compline, followed by a sermon and solemn benediction. Right Rev. John J. Dunn, Auxiliary Bishop of New York, who for the last seventeen years has directed the activities of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in the Archdiocese of New York, preached the sermon.

It is worthy of note that five years after the death of St. Paul of the Cross, their founder, the Passionists were invited to make a foundation in the city of Peking. At the time the invitation could not be accepted. Now, nearly a century and a half later, Passionists are going to China, not from Rome, but from America, a country which but a decade ago was classed as a foreign missionary field.

FRIENDS GIVE SHOWER.
Miss Maude Emery was hostess at a miscellaneous shower, given in her home in Shawnee Terrace, given in honor of Miss Louise Hill, who is married to Hubert K. Haegele, will take place early in January. Those invited were Mesdames Douglas Williams, Raymond Mills, Misses Louise Hill, Irma Atkins, Wanda Hoyer, Mary Paul Flynn, Margery Kemer, Josephine McLaughlin, Virginia Moore, Clara Leachman, Gertrude Bryce, Selma Krimm, Helen Brown, Catherine Slaughter, Margaret Richardson, Frances Smith, Mary Catherine Kennell, Mae Sealy, Beatrice Casally, Alvina Schneider, Loretta Schneider, Inez Schmitt, Evelyn Schmitt, and Miss Margaret Emery, Maude Emery.

INTO ETERNAL REST.
Early Sunday morning Mrs. Mary O'Connor, aged eighty-four, widow of Christopher O'Connor, passed into eternal rest at the home of Louise Erdhouse, 1519 West Broadway. Mrs. O'Connor was highly esteemed in Catholic circles and was an active charity worker. She leaves a large number of friends and relatives to mourn her death. Her funeral took place Tuesday morning from Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Francis O'Connor celebrating the solemn requiem mass.

BISHOP RYAN'S JURILEE.
Right Rev. J. J. Ryan, Bishop of Alton, is to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood on December 23, but at the earnest request of the venerable prelate there will be no formal commemoration of the event. Bishop Ryan has been at the head of the Alton diocese since 1883. He is known as a gentle man, avers to public notice of any kind, preferring to go quietly about his priestly duties and spend his leisure time in study. The venerable prelate has a number of relatives in Louisville.

DAUGHTERS OF ISABELLA.
Dr. Irvin Abell will address the meeting of the Daughters of Isabella on Tuesday evening, December 20, at Knights of Columbus Hall. A very interesting musical programme has also been arranged. This will be an open meeting to which all are invited.

FLAGS FOR SCHOOLS.
Approximately four hundred and fifty handsome silk American flags were presented to parochial schools by the American Legion the past week. A staff and stand accompanied each flag so that at all times they will occupy a prominent place in the classroom. This was in Cincinnati.

MONTDALE OFFICERS.
The Montdale Club has elected the following officers for the coming year: T. D. Hagan, President; C. J. Schlarberger, Vice President; J. O. Sullivan, Secretary; C. L. Bowles, Treasurer, and P. Buky, Physical Director. Montdale has just completed a successful year, having a baseball team that was defeated only twice and captured first individual honor in the cross-country run on Thanksgiving day. This club provides splendid entertainment for the young people of the southern section of the city.
